Premier Magnetics Named Partner Supplier by QSC Audio

Southern California company also awarded Outstanding Fabricator for 2005

Lake Forest, CA—August 25th, 2005—Premier Magnetics has been named Partner Supplier by QSC Audio, Inc., a leading manufacturer of power amplifiers and other equipment for professional audio markets worldwide. Premier Magnetics, who supplies QSC Audio with a range of high-performance magnetics components that drive QSC’s professional-level amplifiers, was also awarded Outstanding Fabricator for 2005 by the manufacturer.

“QSC Audio sets the standard for amplifier technology,” said Premier Magnetics CEO Jim Earley, “and we are therefore delighted that they have recognized our dedication to customer service with these two awards.” He added, “We value this partnership and we look forward to supporting QSC Audio as they continue to advance their leadership position in the worldwide amplifier market.”

Wendy Jaquez, Director of Materials for QSC Audio, said, “For the last 15 years we have chosen only three partners out of 200 suppliers. Premier Magnetics has provided us with an impressive combination of consistent on-time delivery, a willingness to work with our technical groups, as well as flawless quality performance. QSC Audio is pleased to be able to add Premier to our very short list of Partner Suppliers.”
